abh@iccrom.org

After graduating from Damascus School of Architecture in 2000, Abdullah worked with the Directorate General of Antiquities and Museums in Syria. He worked in collaboration with colleagues on a variety of projects including: Preparation of Crac des Chevaliers and Salah El-Din Citadel World Heritage Nomination files, and the assessment of damage to Syrian Cultural Heritage from the First Gulf War (report to the United Nations). Abdullah also led several other projects in the DGAM such as: the architectural rehabilitation of the Throne Hall in Damascus Citadel, guide panels project (Bosra, Crac De Chevaliers, Ancient Qatna, Al-Rusafah), the rehabilitation of the National Museum Laboratories. Abdullah received his MA in Managing Archaeological Sites from University College London in 2011, and has been working since then as a Project Coordinator (Architecture & Sites) at the ICCROM-ATHAR Regional Conservation Centre in Sharjah.
