

Rola El NOUNOU

Project Assistant (Visual Communication & Design) | June, 2013 – April, 2014

Rola currently works as a Communication Officer and Designer at the ICCROM-ATHAR Regional Conservation Centre in Sharjah. She holds a BA in Architecture from the American University of Sharjah, and is working towards an MA in Urban Planning from the American University of Sharjah. Her Architectural background encouraged her to explore the possibilities of heritage conservation with ICCROM-ATHAR in addition to her interest in regional and vernacular architecture. She worked as an assistant to the Director of Corporate Relations in the office of Development and Alumni Affairs at the American University of Sharjah as a designer and organizer for many events. She also worked as a freelancer in the fields of Urban Planning and Conceptual Design.
